To review additional ecological report and land ownership clarification.

The chairman thanked John Gilbert for his hard work in preparing the consultation response on behalf of the council.

Tetsworth Parish Council objects to the latest amendments received as outlined in the council's consultation response. Agreed.

239. To Close the meeting – the meeting closed at 7:42pm

240. Open Forum –

NDP Review. John Gilbert confirmed that the NDP Steering Committee had now reviewed the consultation responses document ready to be submitted to Cheryl for her review.

Elections – a question was asked whether the recent news on the elections would impact TPC. It was confirmed that there would be no impact.

Stoke Talmage gate now repaired, Parkers Hill gate needs repairs and the footpath warden has requested a £70 contribution towards the cost of the repair. The chairman asked the council if this is something they would consider.

Agreed. A further gate is still in storage yard. John Gilbert kindly offered to see whether there are any other areas within the parish that could benefit from a replacement gate.
